Youth Transition – Social Resources

What is an ADRC?

The Aging and Disability Resource Center (ADRC) is a public office where people can find help in their communities for older people and adults with disabilities, as well as their families and friends. Our staff is available to answer your questions and help you explore all of your options. Free, private, confidential meetings with our staff are available at the resource center, over the telephone, email, or in a visit to your home.

Benefits counseling – Accurate and current information on private and government benefits and programs. “Red tape cutters” on problems related to Medicare, Social Security, and other benefits.

Dementia support - Connects individuals, and their family and friends, to community resources that can provide opportunities to remain active, involved and supported.

Family caregiver services – Consultation with individuals and families, support group, respite programs, educational materials.

Health & Wellness Programs – Healthy living programs, falls prevention workshops, nutrition education, and caregiver support workshops.

Information & Assistance – Consultation and advice about the options available to meet an individual’s support and care needs, including enrollment into publicly funded programs (Family Care and IRIS).

Meals-on-Wheels – Meals are delivered to homebound adults age 60+ and includes a check on their well-being. Meals provided to persons of ALL income levels with a suggested donation requested.

Medicare/supplemental insurance counseling – Help with filing claims, solving claim errors, appealing decisions, and understanding and comparing supplemental health insurance policies.

Senior Dining – Healthy, appetizing meals served at various locations in the county. Opportunity for visiting with friends, volunteering. Meals provided to persons of ALL income levels with a suggested donation requested.

Transportation – Information about transportation choices.

Youth Transition Services - Information about resources available when youth with disabilities reach adulthood.
